

Reading Participation will be as follows.

Participation Requirements	Exceeds	Meets	Working
Prepared for Class	Always has supplies such as pencil, paper, planner binder, something to read.	Has necessary supplies most of the time—may on a rare occasion forget something	Regularly forgets supplies such as pencils. Not prepared for working.
Participation in Instruction	Always raises hand and participates in discussion. Answers questions when called on and follows along and keeps up with instruction. Asks questions when needs assistance.	Usually participates fully in discussions and instruction. Keeps up or asks questions when confused.	Does not participate in discussions or has to be prompted more than once to participate. May put head down on desk during class. Does not follow along or know where we are during instruction.
Work Completion	Completes all work without reminders. Puts forth good effort and tries their best. Works neat and readable	Does most work without being asked or reminded. May need a few reminders to do best work or neat work. Tried Hard.	Requires many reminders to do work. May leave work incomplete or refuse some assignments. Messy or rushed work—just “get it done/get by.
Participation in Read Aloud	Listens attentively. Reacts to the literature by nodding, asking questions, laughing appropriately, etc.	Listens during read aloud most of the time. Does not require reminders to listen, keep hands to themselves, etc. Can answer questions requiring listening.	Does not listen regularly. Puts head down on desk. Does not participate in discussion or answer questions. No engaged.
Overall Classroom Behavior	Always has a positive attitude about learning and improving. Maintains self-control and take responsibility for behavior—self directed.	Tries to show a positive attitude in the classroom. Shows maturity and self-control in class. Speaks politely and respectfully.	Often disruptive, argumentative, or displays a negative attitude. May be disrespectful of others or teacher on occasion. Impulsive behavior. Touches others, teases, bullies. Off task behavior. May refuse to cooperate.
Points	100	89	70